Will---Fine Prospects for Fruit.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Winchester, Ya. May 26.—The Handley Memorial Library, which was completed a few years ago at a cost of over $200,000, and which is said to be one of the most beautiful specimens of architecture of the kind in the South, is to be opened to the board of trustees of the Handley fund will receive an additional payment of $25,900 within the next thirty days, and this will enable the trustees to stock the library with books and open to the building without further delay.

The building of the library was made possible by the generosity of the late Judge John Handley, of Seranton, i.a., who, while on a sight-seeing trip, became very favorably impressed with winchester. He was an ardent admirer of Stonewall Jackson and the soldlers of the Confederacy in general, and, at his own request, his remains were interred here in Mount Hebron Cemetery. His mausoleum is as near as it can possibly be to Stonewall (Confederate) Cemetery, nothing but a driveway separating the two. Lynch and T. J. Cooper, representing the board of trustees of the Handley fund, held a conference with the executors in Stranton last week in order to become familiar with many details in connection with plans for the building of the schools, which, it is stated, will be a system unequalled in Virginia, and, perhaps, any other Southern State. The city owns seventy acres of ground, well clevated and drained, in the southern suburbs, upon which will be erected the industrial schools. Many matters in connection with the opening of the big library and the erection of this system of schools are now being considered by the trustees.

A campaign has been started to raise funds for a Young Men's Christian Association building in this city, and already the promoters of the enterprise have received much financial encouragement. The plan has been indorsal by the Ministerial Association and the leading citizens.

Highly interesting exercises were held in connection with the closing of the High School at Berryville, Clarke county, a few days ago. After the rendition of a musical and literary program in the Clarke Opera House, emough to nominate. He would secure them as follows:

New Jersey next Tuesday will furnish twenty-six, ten will come from South Dakota, leaving seventy-rive. There are three sources from whien these seventy-five are expected to come: First, from uninstructed delegates; second, delegates pledged to Taft, but who will vote for Roosevelt; third, contested delegates, of whom there are 200.

These three sources, it was said, w'll give Roosevelt enough votes to win and make him the nominee of the Chicago convention beyond a doubt. This statement undoubteilly will knock into a cocked hat stories that the National Committee favored President Taft and would seat him at all hazards, and at the same time it leaves room to doubt whether it will be necessary for the Roosevelt people to bolt and hold an independent convention. Washington, May 25.—A member of the Republican National Committee in Washington is authority for the statement that Roosevelt will be seated in Chicago. While no direct statement could he had from this committeeman in so many words, nor would neconsent to be quoted, he did not hesitate to say that much of the talk regarding the question of the committee being for Taft was moonshine. It was pointed out that as a starter, ignoring all claims made by the Roosevelt managers, the Oyster Bay man now lacks only 111 votes of having enough to nominate. He would secure them as follows:

New Jersey next Tuesday will furnish.
